

WHO IS WHO?

Özlem is a PhD candidate in Organisational Design and Development at Radboud University in Nijmegen, the Netherlands. She is presenting a work-in-progress paper on “What Makes Team Gig Entrepreneurs Successful?” (co-authored with her supervisor Andrea Herrmann).

Ihsan is a PhD candidate at Rutgers Business School in Newark and New Brunswick, USA. His project focuses on technology start-ups and why many of them don't compete for government contracts as a way of sustaining themselves.

Anders is a PhD candidate at CBS. His research focuses on entrepreneurialism understood as a specific ideology and a broader epistemic culture and its relationship to defense policy and military institutions. He is part of the Rethinking Entrepreneurship in Society team.

Anna is an Associate Professor at Lund University, Sweden. She has published widely on the people side of innovation and entrepreneurship, team dynamics and how they shape decision-making, and social norms and narratives that shape interactions in the startup world.

Benedikte is a Professor in Political Sociology and Head of Department at the Department of Sociology, University of Copenhagen. Her research focuses on state and nation-building both historically and in contemporary societies and on indigenous entrepreneurship in the Arctic.

Justine started her PhD in Entrepreneurship at ESCP Business School in Paris, France in 2021. Her dissertation rethinks entrepreneurship by engaging the social imaginary of growth from a post-growth perspective. She is currently a visiting fellow at CBS.

RETHINKING...
Entrepreneurship

PhD Candidate, Radboud University

Özlem Akekmekci

PhD Candidate, Rutgers Business School

Ihsan Beezer

PhD Candidate, CBS

Anders Bollman

RETHINKING...
Entrepreneurship

Assoc. Professor, Lund University

Anna Brattström

Head of Sociology Department

Benedikte Brincker

PhD Candidate, ESCP Business School

Justine Buriller

WHO IS WHO?

Camilla is a research fellow at Lund University, Sweden. She works on entrepreneurial and early stage financing. Her PhD dealt with equity crowdfunding, shifting the emphasis from entrepreneurs that seek capital to the people that make up the crowd and their needs.

Research Fellow, Lund University

Camilla Civardi

Stephen is Professor of Management at Victoria University of Wellington, New Zealand. His research focuses on how historical understandings can limit innovation and creativity. He serves on the Advisory Board of the Rethinking Entrepreneurship in Society project at CBS.

Professor, Victoria Univ. of Wellington

Stephen Cummings

Stephanie is a PhD candidate in Management and Organization Studies in Grenoble, France. She works on radical anthropological perspectives with special attention to Indigenous and Amerindians Cosmologies and Philosophy to rethink organizational concepts and practices.

PhD Candidate, Grenoble Ecole de Mgmt.

Stephanie Daher

Caroline is a Postdoctoral research fellow on the 'Equality Diversity and Inclusion as a Moralized Market' project at CBS. Her research focuses on organizing for sustainability through three interrelated avenues: multi stakeholder partnerships, entrepreneurship and civil society organizations.

Postdoc, CBS

Caroline Demeyère

Dimo is Professor at the University of Bath, UK. His research focuses on the entrepreneurial journey in independent, corporate, and social settings. He asks how entrepreneurs and investors think, act, and interact in the face of uncertainty. He is a visiting professor at CBS at the moment.

Professor, University of Bath

Dimo Dimov

İrem is a graduate of CBS' entrepreneurship program 'Organizational Innovation and Entrepreneurship' and a multimedia professional. She is the head of creative of the Rethinking Entrepreneurship in Society group and one of the organizers of this workshop.

Team Rethinking Entrepreneurship

İrem Dönmez

RETHINKING...
Entrepreneurship

WHO IS WHO?

Lauren is a PhD candidate in the Rethinking Entrepreneurship in Society project at CBS. Her dissertation focuses on a deeper understanding of the social discourse surrounding entrepreneurship by investigating the popularization of entrepreneurship concepts from scholarly debates to popular use.

PhD Candidate, CBS

Lauren Eaton

RETHINKING...
Entrepreneurship

Robert is an Associate Professor and Faculty Director at the University of San Diego, USA. His research focuses on the influence of institutional change on entrepreneurship, what drives institutional change, and the effect of those changes on the types of ventures that are founded and their performance.

Assoc. Prof. Univ. of San Diego

Robert Eberhart

Alex is a PhD candidate in the Rethinking Entrepreneurship in Society project at CBS. His PhD focuses on the political economy of capitalism, investment, regulation, and law, and specifically how the scope of state action is transformed, restricted, and governed by entrepreneurial logics.

PhD Candidate, CBS

Alexander Elg

RETHINKING...
Entrepreneurship

Nicola is a PhD candidate at the Department of Digitalization, CBS, defending her thesis shortly. She works on an ethnographic study of resellers, investigating the ways multi-sided platforms structure labor relations and the wider implications of these structures on their environments.

PhD Candidate, CBS

Nicola Ens

Camilla is Postdoc at Ca' Foscari University of Venice, Italy. She completed her PhD in 2023, studying "The Matter of Time: Materials from the Past in Organizing for the Future". Currently she works on craft and entrepreneurship with a focus on authenticity work.

Postdoc, University of Venice

Camilla
Ferri

Federica is a PhD candidate at EM Lyon Business School. Her research interests include entrepreneurial exit, careers of entrepreneurs post exits and the process of social value creation through entrepreneurship programs.

PhD Candidate, EM Lyon Business School

Federica Fusaro

WHO IS WHO?

Christian is Associate Professor and Head of the Entrepreneurship, Ethics and Leadership unit at CBS. His research is focused on sustainable entrepreneurship, authentic leadership, and management innovation, using approaches from philosophy to better understand entrepreneurial experiences. He co-organized this workshop.

Assoc. Prof. and Director of Eship Unit, CBS

Christian
Garmann Johnsen

Vera has recently defended her doctoral thesis in entrepreneurship at Aalto University School of Business. Her work theorizes social and individual change through entrepreneurship and its potential to create more just societies in terms of empowerment, emancipation and entrepreneurial responsibility.

Postdoc, Aalto University

Vera Haataja

Jacob is a postdoctoral researcher at York University, California, and lectures in the Department of Sociology at the University of California, San Diego. His dissertation focused on the social relationships produced through startup investing.

Postdoc, York University, CA

Jacob Hellman

Andrea is Professor of Sustainable Innovation and Entrepreneurship at Radboud University, Faculty of Nijmegen School of Management, Netherlands. Previously she worked at Utrecht University and was a Marie Curie research fellow at Columbia University.

Professor, Radboud University

Andrea Herrmann

Emma is a PhD candidate at the International Max Planck Research School on the Social and Political Constitution of the Economy, Max Planck Institute for the Study of Societies, Cologne, Germany. She works on social and political inequality and the sociology of gender.

PhD Candidate, Max Planck Inst, Cologne

Emma Ischinsky

Liudmila is an Assistant Professor of Entrepreneurship at EMLV-École de Management Léonard de Vinci, Paris La Défense, France. She asks how entrepreneurs decide where to locate and how stigmatization related to marginalized places affects the construction of entrepreneurial identities.

Assistant Professor, EMLV Paris

Liudmila Ivonen

WHO IS WHO?

Nicolai is a PhD candidate in the Rethinking Entrepreneurship in Society project at CBS. His research asks how actors within the gig economy mobilize and politicize the semantic field of entrepreneurship to attract gig workers and how this affects the self-narratives and expectations of people engaged in the gig economy.

PhD Candidate, CBS

Nicolai Jepsen

RETHINKING...
Entrepreneurship

Ian is a Career Development Fellow at the University of York. He received his PhD from the University of Liverpool and won the 2022 Coleman Prize for excellence in new research on business history. His research focuses on rhetorical history strategies, uses of the past, corporate ethics, organisational memory, corporate archives & sponsorship, British banking history, and the history of the wrestling industry.

Postdoc, York University

Ian Jones

Peter is Professor in Tax Law with focus on Danish and International Corporate Tax Law and a member of the interdisciplinary Rethinking Entrepreneurship in Society team at CBS. He works on tax planning and tax avoidance and the challenges caused by the increasing digitalization of the economy.

Professor, CBS

Peter Koerver Schmidt

RETHINKING...
Entrepreneurship

Rasmus is an Associate Professor at the Department of Management, Society and Communication at CBS. His research deals with issues of technological change, innovation and entrepreneurship as they relate to organizational processes.

Associate Professor, CBS

Rasmus Koss Hartmann

Reinhild is a Professor of Contemporary History at the University of Siegen, Germany. Her research focuses on the history of consumption, protest and emotions. She is interested in entrepreneurship education and the role of business games.

Professor, Univ. of Siegen

Reinhild Kreis

WHO IS WHO?

Valentin is a master student of CBS' entrepreneurship program 'Organizational Innovation and Entrepreneurship'. He is the head of organization and events of the Rethinking Entrepreneurship in Society project and one of the organizers of this workshop.

Team Rethinking Entrepreneurship

Valentin Kuptz

RETHINKING...
Entrepreneurship

Louise is a PhD candidate at Paris Dauphine-PSL University, France. Her work focuses on feminism and the commons and she is particularly interested in entrepreneurship in stigmatized industries and places of taboo.

PhD Candidate, Paris Dauphine

Louise Lecomte

Jan is Senior Lecturer for Economic and Social History at Göttingen University and program director of the Erasmus Mundus Joint Masters Degree "Global Markets, Local Creativities" (GLOCAL). At the moment, he explores the market for funerals and its entrepreneurs in transatlantic comparison.

Senior Lecturer, Göttingen University

Jan Logemann

Christina is Professor of Entrepreneurship and History at CBS. She is principal investigator of the Rethinking Entrepreneurship in Society project and works on the global discourse of entrepreneurialism in past, present and future. She co-organized this workshop.

Professor, CBS

Christina Lubinski

RETHINKING...
Entrepreneurship

Niall is Professor of Entrepreneurship and Business History at the University of Glasgow, UK. He has worked at the universities of Cambridge, Wales and Strathclyde and is currently PI on the EC funded Project 'Legitimation of Newness and Its Impact on EU Agenda for Change'.

Professor, University of Glasgow

Niall MacKenzie

WHO IS WHO?

Bent's research has aimed to develop Organizational Philosophy into a method that maintains the uniqueness of the empirical or conceptual problem at hand and, on the other, is able to generate insights that go beyond this problem and its contextual situation.

Professor, CBS

Bent Meier Sørensen

Bo Hee works at the intersection of organization studies, economic sociology, and science and technology studies. She is interested in the transformation of financial markets and organizations due to electronization of marketplaces and adoption of automated trading systems.

Assistant Professor, CBS

Bo Hee
Min

Andrew is a Professor and the Randall C. Papé Chair in Entrepreneurship and Innovation at the University of Oregon. His research explores technology, entrepreneurship, and occupations. He serves on the Advisory Board of the Rethinking Entrepreneurship in Society research project.

Professor, University of Oregon

Andrew
Nelson

Lena is Associate Professor of Entrepreneurship at CBS. She is engaged in a research project on sustainable entrepreneurship, supported by the Velux Foundation, and works on post-growth initiatives. She also runs the CBS master's program 'Organizational Innovation and Entrepreneurship'.

Associate Professor, CBS

Lena Olaison

Niaz is a PhD candidate at Lund University, Sweden. He is an alumnus of Lund's Master's in Entrepreneurship & Innovation program and works with Anna Brattström to explore the entrepreneurship industry. He also has experience working in startups.

PhD Candidate, Lund University

Niaz Patwary

WHO IS WHO?

Andrew is Professor of History and Director of the Centre for Business History at CBS. He works on the relationships between business, emotions, and the everyday, which he explores in the contexts of family business and entrepreneurship.

Professor, CBS

Andrew
Popp

Léna is a PhD Candidate at the University of Exeter and focuses on multi-stakeholder partnerships for local development and forest preservation. Her project is a collaboration with the NGO 'Cool Earth'. She focuses on Cool Earth's work in Peru with the Awajun community around the growing and marketing of cacao.

PhD Candidate, University of Exeter

Léna Prouchet

Stratos is Professor of Entrepreneurship Studies and Head of the Department of Strategy, Innovation and Entrepreneurship (DSIE) at the University of Southampton, UK. He holds a PhD and an MPhil from the University of Cambridge and currently conducts research on the conceptual foundations of entrepreneurship studies.

Professor, University of Southampton

Stratos Ramoglou

Siddhesh is PhD candidate and lecturer in tax law at the Institute for Austrian and International Tax Law, Vienna University, Austria. He is interested in how artificial intelligence can impact businesses and tax administration and feed the global agenda in the field of AI in taxation and entrepreneurship.

PhD Candidate, Vienna University

Siddhesh Rao

Mahsa is a Postdoc at Stellenbosch Univ. She has earned her PhD at University of Agder, Norway, and is a member of the Global Entrepreneurship Monitor. Her research focuses on entrepreneurial traditions as institutionalized in society, in the entrepreneurial family, and in the role of the entrepreneur.

Postdoc, Stellenbosch University

Mahsa Samsami

WHO IS WHO?

Thomas is Professor at the University of Southern Denmark. He earned a PhD at Columbia University and a Postdoc at Yale University. His research focuses on entrepreneurship and network organization in Denmark and in comparative perspective.

Professor, Univ. of Southern Denmark

Thomas Schøtt

Gautam is a Postdoctoral Researcher at the Center for Innovation Research (CIRCLE) and Division of Innovation, Department of Design Sciences, LTH, Lund University, Sweden. He is funded by the Marie Skłodowska Curie postdoctoral fellowship and works on informal innovations in India.

Postdoc, Lund University

Gautam Sharma

Isabell is a sociologist and leader of a research group on Business, Ownership, and Family Wealth at the Max Planck Institute in Cologne. Her research focuses on the particularities of entrepreneurial families, collective engagement in entrepreneurship, and trajectories and variations of entrepreneurial groups.

Research Group Leader, Max Planck Inst.

Isabell Stamm

Stina is Associate Professor and Director of the Governance, Culture & Learning Unit at CBS, Department of Business Humanities and Law. She works on creativity, design thinking and property rights and runs the master's program 'Strategic Design Entrepreneurship'.

Associate Professor, Director of Unit, CBS

Stina Teilmann-Lock

Morten Tinning is a postdoctoral fellow at Copenhagen Business School and a maritime historian with a special interest in entrepreneurial communities and practices. His dissertation (2023) explored the transition from sail to steam and its impact on regional and global entrepreneurship.

Postdoc, CBS

Morten Tinning

Hannah is Assistant Professor tenure-track at CBS and a member of the Rethinking Entrepreneurship in Society team. She is interested in the entrepreneurial and managerial functions of traders in the early-modern Atlantic and the social effects of entrepreneurship on society in past and present.

Assistant Professor, CBS

Hannah Knox Tucker

RETHINKING...
Entrepreneurship

WHO IS WHO?

Maud is a PhD candidate at the department of Management and Organisation of the Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam, the Netherlands. Her research focuses on the experiences of diverse founders in the Dutch tech start-up ecosystem.

PhD Candidate, Univ. of Amsterdam

Maud
van Merriënboer

Florence is Associate Professor and Vice-Head of Department for Research at CBS. She works on gender and diversity, identity, the corporate elite and networks. Since August 2019 she has also held the position as Academic Director of the CBS Business in Society Platform 'Diversity and Difference'.

Associate Professor and Vice-Head of Department for Research, CBS

Florence Villesèche

Marina is a PhD candidate at Lund University in Sweden. She works on the nuances of ethicality, expanding the debates on the "bright and dark sides" of entrepreneurial phenomena. Drawing on ethical theories, her dissertation unpacks the grey zones, exploring entrepreneurial action that is both productive and destructive.

PhD Candidate, Lund Univ.

Marina Vorholzer

Dan is Professor of Entrepreneurship at the University of Southern California and at CBS. He is a member of the Rethinking Entrepreneurship in Society project and co-organizer of this workshop. He also started the Humanistic Approaches to Entrepreneurship (HERS) research initiative.

Professor, University of Southern California & CBS

Dan Wadhvani
RETHINKING...
Entrepreneurship

Ben is a Professor of History at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. His most recent book, One Day I'll Work for Myself: The Dream and Delusion that Conquered America (2024), explores how so many Americans came to believe that self-employment was the key to personal fulfillment and national economic growth.

Professor, Univ. of North Carolina

Ben Waterhouse

Friederike holds the chair for SME Management and Entrepreneurship at the University Siegen, Germany, and is President & Managing Director at the Institut für Mittelstandsforschung, Bonn. She serves on the Advisory Board for the Rethinking Entrepreneurship project at CBS.

Professor, University of Siegen

Friederike Welter

