4C. ENTREPRENEURSHIP AND INEQUALITY

Professor, Victoria Univ. of Wellington
Stephen

Cummings

Room: Råvarebygningen (CBS Exec.), Porcelænshaven 22, Fourth floor, R4.17 4C. Entrepreneurship and Inequality Chair: Stephen Cummings (University of Wellington)

Vera Haataja (Aalto University) Re-thinking the promise of emancipatory entrepreneurship – Critical reflections on the OnlyFans platform

Caroline Demeyére (CBS) 'Not like other women': The role of the 'exception' in reproducing gender inequality in entrepreneurship

Dan Wadhwani (University of Southern California & CBS) & Hannah Knox Tucker (CBS) Toward a political theory of entrepreneurial capitalism

Vera has recently defended her doctoral thesis in entrepreneurship at Aalto University School of Business. Her work theorizes social and individual change through entrepreneurship and its potential to create more just societies in terms of empowerment, emancipation and entrepreneurial responsibility.

Caroline is a Postdoctoral research fellow on the 'Equality Diversity and Inclusion as a Moralized Market' project at CBS. Her research focuses on organizing for sustainability through three interrelated avenues: multi stakeholder partnerships, entrepreneurship and civil society organizations.

Dan is Professor of Entrepreneurship at the University of Southern California and at CBS. He is a member of the Rethinking Entrepreneurship in Society project and co-organizer of this workshop. He also started the Humanistic Approaches to Entrepreneurship (HERS) research initiative.

11:00 - 12:15

The session is 75 minutes, and each presenter has been allocated 15 minutes for presenting. Let's keep the speakers on track with their time so we have enough room for open discussion and interaction with the audience.

Postdoc, Aalto University Vera Haataja

Postdoc, CBS

Caroline Demeyére

Professor, University of Southern Caliornia & CBS

Dan Wadhwani Hannah is Assistant Professor tenure-track at CBS and a member of the Rethinking Entrepreneurship in Society team. She is interested in the entrepreneurial and managerial functions of traders in the earlymodern Atlantic and the social effects of entrepreneurship on society in past and present.

Assistant Professor, CBS

Hannah Knox Tucker

