

LAUREN EATON

PhD Fellow | Copenhagen Business School | lea.bhl@cbs.dk | she/her

A committed researcher and educator who is fascinated with leveraging history to uncover different ways of thinking about entrepreneurship, leadership, and innovation.

TEACHING AND RESEARCH AREAS

Business History

Entrepreneurship

Leadership

Organisational Behaviour

EDUCATION

PhD in Management – Rethinking Entrepreneurship

Copenhagen Business School

October 2023 to Present

Master of Commerce in Management with Distinction

Victoria University of Wellington

Year of Graduation: 2022

Bachelor of Commerce in Human Resource Management and Commercial Law

Victoria University of Wellington

Year of Graduation: 2021

EMPLOYMENT

Teaching Fellow

Victoria University of Wellington

October 2023 to Present

Researcher – Building New Zealand's Innovation Capacity

Victoria University of Wellington

September 2022 to September 2023

Lecture Assistant

Victoria University of Wellington

November 2020 to July 2023

Guest Lecturer

Victoria University of Wellington
July 2022 to August 2022

Research Assistant

Victoria University of Wellington
July 2020 to July 2021

Assistant Advisor People and Culture

Ministry of Business, Innovation, and Employment
February 2020 to November 2021

Intern

Summer of Biz Internship Programme
November 2019 to February 2020

SERVICES

Mentor at The Atom – Innovation Space

Victoria University of Wellington
July 2022 to Present

Tutor Representative – School of Management

Victoria University of Wellington
July 2021 to July 2023

Tutor Development – School of Management

Victoria University of Wellington
July 2021 to July 2023

PUBLICATIONS

Eaton, L. (2022). Transformational leadership: A political science theory transformed by management studies. How did this happen, and why does it matter? (Doctoral dissertation, Open Access University of Wellington).

Eaton, L., Bridgman, T., & Cummings, S. (2023). Recovering the origins of transformational leadership for democratizing work. In Academy of Management Proceedings (Vol. 2023, No. 1, p. 10305).

ACHIEVEMENTS

- Wellington School of Business and Government Dean's List 2020
- Wellington School of Business and Government Dean's List 2019